

Yale Law students achieve competency in the following learning outcomes:

1. Knowledge and understanding of substantive and procedural law;
2. Legal analysis and reasoning, legal research, problem-solving, and written and oral communication in the legal context;
3. Exercise of proper professional and ethical responsibilities to clients and the legal system; and
4. Other professional skills needed for competent and ethical participation in the legal profession that are acquired through experiential courses.

(Adopted by Yale Law School March 2017)