

NEXT GENERATION LEGAL SCHOLARSHIP:

A WORKS-IN-PROGRESS SYMPOSIUM OF THE GRADUATE PROGRAMS AT YALE LAW SCHOOL

Schedule

Tuesday, April 10

4:00-4:15 Welcome and Opening Remarks by Dean Harold Hongju Koh
Room 121

4:15-6:00 Panel I: Transnational Law and Organization
Room 121

Dirk Pulkowski, “Regime Conflicts in International Law: Towards a Model of Communicative Compatibility”

Cherie Metcalf, “Corporate Codes of Conduct, International Trade and the Private Diffusion of Public Law Norms: Limits and Possibilities”

Commentator: Robert Hockett, Cornell Law School

Rodrigo Correa, “Human Rights and Popular Sovereignty”

Commentator: Katrina Wyman, NYU Law School

Aparna Chandra, “Freedom of Information in International Organizations: Theory, Law, Principles, and Practice”

Commentator: Mariana Prado, University of Toronto Faculty of Law

6:00-6:15 Break

6:15-8:00 Panel II: Constitutional Orders and Fundamental Rights
Room 122
(dinner served)

Mrinal Satish, “The Role of the Judiciary in the ‘War on Terror’: A Comparative Analysis of India and the United States”

Jessica Knouse, “Employer Control over Employee Gender Identity and its Effects on Democratic Participation”

Commentator: Jason Mazzone, Brooklyn Law School

Jorge Contesse, “Culture, Constitutionalism, and Human Rights”

Commentator: Bethany Berger, University of Connecticut School of Law

Nicole Roughan, “Theorizing the Association of State and Indigenous Law”

Commentator: Katrina Wyman, NYU Law School

Wednesday, April 11

10:15-12:00
Room 121
(breakfast served)

Panel III: Development and History of Legal Institutions

Stephan McBride, “The Origin of English Law: An Empirical Analysis 1066-1199”

Commentator: Benjamin Depoorter, University of Miami School of Law

R. Owen Williams, “Lincoln’s Justices: Democratic Politicians in Republican Robes”

Commentator: Jason Mazzone, Brooklyn Law School

Jinhua Cheng, “Police Corruption Control in Hong Kong and New York City: A Dilemma of Checks and Balances in Combating Corruption”

Jingxia Shi, “Universal Telecommunications Services in China: Making the Grade on a Harmonious Information Society”

Commentator: Mariana Prado, University of Toronto Faculty of Law

12:00-12:15

Break

12:15-2:00
Faculty Lounge
(lunch served)

Roundtable: “Finding Your Voice as an Emerging Legal Scholar”

Moderator: Robert Hockett JSD ’06, Cornell Law School

Katrina Wyman LLM ’01, NYU Law School

Mariana Prado LLM ’02, University of Toronto Faculty of Law

Jason Mazzone JSD ’04, Brooklyn Law School

Benjamin Depoorter LLM ’04, University of Miami School of Law

Tai-Heng Cheng JSD ’04, New York Law School

[Co-sponsored with the Program on Law Teaching; please RSVP to marie.battista@yale.edu .]

2:00-4:00
TBA

Small Group Discussions with Alumni Commentators

4:15-6:00
Room 122

Panel IV: Investment Law and Dispute-Settlement

Louie Llanzon, “The Control of Corruption in Foreign Investment: A Framework for Decision in International Investment Arbitration”

Gilles Cuniberti & Matteo Winkler, “Colliding Systems, Parallel Litigation and Legal Imperialism: The Corvettes Case”

Commentator: Tai-Heng Cheng, New York Law School

Santiago Montt, “The BIT Generation as a Global Governance Experiment”

Commentator: Benjamin Depoorter, University of Miami School of Law

Miguel Kreling, “Rethinking the Mandatory Bid Rule: Is there a Way to Compensate Minorities for Increased Private Benefits of Control by Bidders?”

Commentator: Robert Hockett, Cornell Law School

6:00-6:15
Room 122

Closing Remarks by Neysun Mahboubi, Yale Law School

The support of the Oscar M. Ruebhausen Fund at Yale Law School is gratefully acknowledged.