Welcome (back) to the Law School! As we begin the new year, we want to remind you that we are always available to discuss any concerns that you have about financial aid or other student funding. If you have questions, please come to see us; because every student’s financial situation is different, you should not just rely on information that you receive from your friends. Our office is located in M13 and our door is always open during our work hours of 9:00-4:30 p.m. weekly. Students are encouraged to drop in or set up an individual appointment with one of our staff by emailing financialaid.law@yale.edu.

For your planning purposes, we have included a list of some of the major deadlines for the 2014-2015 academic year. In order for us to help you, it is very important that you meet all financial aid and funding deadlines. If you know that you will have a problem meeting a particular deadline, please contact the Financial Aid Office in advance to make arrangements.

Throughout the year, the Financial Aid Office will communicate with you through a variety of different ways:

- Website (http://www.law.yale.edu/admissions/Costs&FinancialAid.htm)
- FinAid Blog (http://blogs.law.yale.edu/blogs/finaid)
- Monthly Financial Aid Alerts (emailed on the first day of each month) - with concise info on what you need to know or do that month.

We encourage you to take the time to read the always important information we send out and to reach out to us with any questions.

We are also pleased to bring back again this year our popular Financial Literacy Lunch Workshop series- with speakers focusing on key financial topics including budgeting, credit, loan repayment, COAP, basic personal finances and investments. And yes, every session includes a free lunch! Upcoming Fall 2014 workshops and dates will be announced in the next couple of weeks!
