January 28
Michael Reed Hurtado
Colombian human rights advocate and Tom and Andi Bernstein Human Rights Fellow, Yale Law School
Truth, Justice and Reparations in the Colombian Peace Deal

February 11
Thomas Keenan
Associate Professor, Comparative Literature, and Director, Human Rights Project, Bard College
Counter-Forensics and the Arts of Evidence

February 25
Robert Barsky
Professor of English and French Literatures and Professor of Law, Vanderbilt University
Dirt, Filth, Infection, and Border Crossings: Rendering Human Beings 'illegal' and 'foreign'

March 3
Meredith Gamer
Postdoctoral Associate, Institute of Sacred Music, Yale University
The Sheriff's Picture Frame: The Art of Execution in Eighteenth-Century Britain

March 24
Adam Michnik
Founder and Editor-in-Chief, Gazeta Wyborcza, leading Polish newspaper, and Tom and Andi Bernstein Human Rights Fellow, Yale Law School
Human Rights and Dissident Movements in East and Central Europe

March 31
TBA

April 14
Nicholas Robinson
Visiting Lecturer in Law and Robina Visiting Human Rights Fellow, Yale Law School
The Right to Food and the Development of Administrative Law in India

April 21
Jennifer (JJ) Rosenbaum
Robina International Human Rights Fellow, Yale Law School
Responding to Global Labor Subcontracting: A Human Rights Approach to New Forms of Bargaining in Migrant and Contingent Labor Markets

All workshops will be held at 12:10 PM in the Law School Faculty Lounge unless otherwise noted.
You may email schell.law@yale.edu to request background readings a week in advance of the session.